

JOB DESCRIPTION—MINISTER OF EVANGELISM

Primary function.—To lead the church to grow larger by providing kingdom leadership in the area of evangelism.

General function.—To work with and under the direction of the senior pastor as a member of the pastoral team to enable the church to focus on the Great Commission and to equip the church to carry out the five functions of the New Testament church: evangelism, discipleship, ministry, fellowship, and worship.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Leading

- To lead members of the church to a deeper commitment of personal evangelism.

Administering

- To give oversight and direction to the evangelistic ministries of the church, including but not limited to:
The Sunday School
Outreach
Special Evangelism Events
Missions

Ministering

- To assist members of this church in fulfilling the task of evangelism through new and existing ministries of the church.

Communicating

- To preach and teach the Bible, believing that it has God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth without any mixture of error for its matter.
- To work with the senior pastor in communicating the priority of evangelism as a part of the vision for ministry that God gives to this congregation.

EXPECTATIONS

- The minister of evangelism is expected to be a servant leader.
- The minister of evangelism is expected to live an exemplary life modeling the call, character, and competencies becoming a minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

RELATIONSHIPS

- As a member of the pastoral team of this church, the minister of evangelism is responsible to the senior pastor in all matters of church administration. In the absence of a senior pastor, the minister of evangelism will be responsible to the interim team leader named during the time of transition.